

Privacy Statement

1. Introduction

The Diaceutics Group respects your right to privacy and this privacy statement (this "Statement") sets out the basis on which we use, process, store and/or disclose Personal Data that we collect from you, from third parties or that you provide to us directly.

This Statement applies to a variety of situations – to enable you to find the information most relevant to you, we have provided summaries of the key information applicable to your situation in the "Audiences" section 2 below. Unless otherwise notified to you, Diaceutics PLC is the Controller of your Personal Data (with ICO registration number ZA504761).

A glossary of capitalised terms used in this Statement is set out in section 11. If you have any questions, comments or requests regarding the way your Personal Data is used or processed by the Diaceutics Group, please contact us at privacy@diaceutics.com.

2. Audiences

This section sets out a summary of the key information applicable to you depending on the nature of your relationship with us, including the Personal Data we process, our reasons for doing so, the legal basis we rely on and any third parties we may share the information with.

Please note that these summaries should be read alongside the remaining sections of the Statement, as these provide additional information regarding our processing of your Personal Data and your rights as a data subject.

3. Additional Purposes of Processing

- 3.1. In addition to the purposes set out in the relevant summaries above, we may also process Personal Data where necessary for the following purposes:
- a. to comply with legal obligations to which we are subject;
 - b. to establish, investigate, exercise or defend or settle a legal claim;
 - c. to pursue our legitimate interest or that of a third party, but only where such processing is necessary to achieve the relevant outcome and provided that it is not outweighed by a risk of harm to your interests, rights and freedoms. Examples include maintaining the security and safety of our products and services and preventing fraud and illegal activity; and/or
 - d. in limited cases, we may also rely on your consent (in which case, we will provide additional information regarding the proposed purpose of processing) or where we need to protect the vital interests for you or someone else, or where it is necessary to do so in the public interest.
- 3.2. The Special Category Data that may be processed by us are set out in the relevant Audience summary applicable to you as set out at section 2 of this Statement. Where we process Special Category Data, it will be justified by a condition set out at section 3.1 above and also by one of the following additional conditions:
- a. in accordance with paragraph 10 of Schedule 1 of the UK's Data Protection Act 2018 – for example where we seek to prevent or detect unlawful acts (e.g., fraud or antisocial behaviour);
 - b. where necessary to undertake scientific research in the public interest in accordance with Article 9(2)(j) GDPR and paragraph 10 of Schedule 1 of the UK's Data Protection Act 2018;
 - c. where necessary to protect the vital interests for you or someone else where you are physically or legally incapable of giving consent (for example in exceptional emergency situations, such as a medical emergency), or, where it is necessary to do in the public interest; and/or

- d. the processing is otherwise permitted by applicable law, such as in relation to legal claims, or in limited cases, based on your explicit consent.
- 3.3. We will only use your Personal Data for the purpose for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your Personal Data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so. Please note that we may process your Personal Data without your knowledge, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

4. Sharing Personal Data with third parties

- 4.1. We will share Personal Data with the third parties as set out in the relevant Audience summary applicable to you as set out in section 2 above. We may also share your Personal Data with the following third parties:
- service providers that we appoint to act as Processors on our behalf - these may include providers of: IT services and infrastructure; data hosting; logistics; information security; marketing services and other services necessary for our business operations;
 - professional advisors, such as law firms, accountants, auditors and consultants;
 - public authorities, regulatory authorities and law enforcement agencies, and other third parties where necessary to comply with any applicable legal obligation, taxation requirement, court order, summons, search warrants or any other legal or regulatory obligation or request to which we are or may become subject;
 - a potential or confirmed investor, purchaser, liquidator or administrator of a member of the Diaceutics Group;
 - other members of the Diaceutics Group, to enable or support us in providing our services;
 - legal authorities or enforcement bodies where disclosure is necessary to exercise, establish or defend the legal rights of Diaceutics Group; and/ or,
 - other companies and organisations to protect the rights, property or safety of the Diaceutics Group, our customers, or others, such as for the purposes of security, fraud protection and credit risk reduction.

5. Security

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your Personal Data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed without authorisation, or otherwise altered or disclosed. We limit access to your Personal Data to those employees, agents, and contractors who have a business need to know.

All our third-party service providers and members of the Diaceutics Group are required to take appropriate security measures to protect your Personal Data in line with our information security policies, and we only permit them to process your Personal Data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

Although we take reasonable steps to protect the Personal Data you provide to us, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure, and we cannot guarantee the security of any information you transmit to us. Any such transmission is at your own risk. Once we have received your information, we use physical, electronic and procedural safeguards designed to prevent unauthorised access.

6. Data Export

Some of the entities with whom we may share your Personal Data (including members of the Diaceutic Group) are based outside the UK and/or the European Economic Area (“EEA”).

In accordance with the GDPR, whenever we transfer your personal data out of the UK and/or EEA, we ensure an equivalent degree of protection is afforded to it by ensuring appropriate safeguards have been implemented. If you would like further information on the specific safeguards used by us when transferring your Personal Data out of the UK and/or EEA, please contact privacy@diaceutics.com.

7. Retention

We will only retain your Personal Data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements. To determine the appropriate retention period for Personal Data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the Personal Data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your Personal Data, the purposes for which we process your Personal Data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements including applicable statutory limitation periods.

At the end of the applicable retention period, we will securely destroy your Personal Data. In some circumstances, we may anonymise your Personal Data so that it can no longer be associated with you, in which case we may use such information without further notice to you.

8. Profiling and automated decision making

We undertake some limited profiling where set out in the relevant summaries in section 2 above.

However, you will not be subject to decisions that have a significant impact on you based solely on automated decision-making.

9. Specific information and rights relevant to specific audiences

9.1. GDPR

The table below sets out the additional rights applicable to you where the GDPR applies to our processing of your Personal Data

Right	Further Information
Right to be Informed	You have the right to know whether your Personal Data is being processed by us, how we use your Personal Data and your rights in relation to your Personal Data.
Right of Access ("Data Subject Access Request")	You have the right to request a copy of the Personal Data held by us about you and other information relating to the processing of your Personal Data. You will not have to pay a fee to access your Personal Data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with the request in these circumstances.
Right to Rectification	You have the right to request that we correct any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you, though we may need to verify the accuracy of the new data you provide to us.
Right to Erasure	You have the right to ask us to delete or remove Personal Data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your Personal Data where you have exercised your right to object to processing or withdraw consent (see below), where we may have processed your information unlawfully or where we are required to erase your Personal Data to comply with local law. Note, however, that we may not always be able to comply with your request of erasure for specific legal reasons which will be notified to you, if applicable, at the time of your request.

Right to Restriction of Processing	You have the right to ask us to restrict processing your Personal Data in the following situations: where you contest the accuracy of your Personal Data; where the processing is unlawful, and you do not want us to delete your Personal Data; where we no longer need your Personal Data for the purposes of processing, but you require the data in relation to a legal claim; or, where you have objected to us processing your Personal Data pending verification as to whether or not our legitimate interests override your interests, or, in connection with legal proceedings. When you exercise this right, we may only store your Personal Data but will not further process it unless you consent, or the processing is necessary in relation to a legal claim or to protect the rights of another person or legal person or for reasons of important public interest. We will inform you before the processing restriction is lifted. Please note that this may potentially result in reduced services or availability, for example, in certain instances where you ask us not to process your Personal Data, you may not be able to use our website or DXRX services.
Right to Data Portability	You may request us to provide you with your Personal Data which you have given us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and you may request us to transmit your Personal Data directly to another Controller where this is technically feasible. This right only arises where we process your Personal Data on the legal bases of your consent or where it is necessary to perform our contract with you.
Right to Object	You have a right to object at any time to the processing of your Personal Data where we process your Personal Data on the legal basis of pursuing our legitimate interests, or those of a third party. However, we may be able to demonstrate that we have compelling legitimate grounds to continue to process your information which override your objection. You also have the right to object where we are processing your Personal Data for direct marketing purposes.
Right to Withdraw Consent	You can withdraw consent at any time where we are relying on consent to process your Personal Data. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent. If you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide certain products or services to you. We will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent.

You can exercise any of these rights, or request any additional information by submitting a request to privacy@diaceutics.com or by mail marked for the attention of Global Compliance Officer at: Diaceutics PLC, First Floor Building two Dataworks at Kings Hall Life Sciences Park Belfast Co Antrim BT9 6GW. We will provide you with information on any action taken upon your request in relation to any of these rights without undue delay and at the latest within one month of receiving your request. We may extend this by up to two months if necessary, however we will inform you if this arises.

Please note that we may ask you to verify your identity when you seek to exercise any of your data protection rights. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.

While we hope to be able to resolve any concerns you have about the way that we are processing your Personal Data, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority if you believe that your Personal Data has been processed in a way that does not comply with the Data Protection Legislation or have any wider concerns about our compliance. For the UK, you can lodge such a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) by calling the ICO helpline on 0303 123 1113 or via their website here.
